Project 3 Contemporary and historical electronic arts
Sound | Video | Installation | Workshops

Adelaide 6-26 March 2006

Project 3 is a feast of experimental electronic art at the Adelaide Bank Festival of Arts 2006. Exploring cutting-edge and experimental sound, video and installation, it is presented by Three Reasons in collaboration with young new media curator Michael Yuen,

Project 3 encompasses four events, twelve artists and nine premieres of newly created works. Hosted by ArtSpace, the SonicSpace concerts will push the boundaries of contemporary sonic art and delves into the rich history of electronic and computer music. The exhibition Silent Music is the Australian premiere of internationally renowned sound installationist Robin Minard (Canada/ Germany). Detailed discussions with Project 3 artists will be held at the Project 3 Artist Talks.

In addition to Project 3's program at ArtSpace, Street Cinema brings digital abstract art to Adelaide's West End, presenting a snapshot of Australian innovators, 8pm until late, free public screenings, 153 Hindley St.
